

Connectivity Confession of Faith

- God has and is preparing divine connections just for me!
- I have good relationships with others because of my love and respect for them.
- I consistently bring God encounters to other people Like Jesus, I prosper in all my relationships (Luke 2:52)
- My heart is gentle, I am wise and patient with others as I lift them up in times of need.
- Because of my love for others and God's love for me, I excel in the grace of giving.
- I declare that the enemy nor my ego will interfere in my covenant relationships!
- I declare every divine relationship ordered by God causes supernatural blessings and not curses!
- Each of my family members is wonderfully blessed and radically loves Jesus and walking in the covenant blessings of God!
- I bear the fruit of the Spirit because I leverage God's love and all those around me will see the manifestation of the different dimensions of His love in me. (Galatians 5:22-23)
- I choose not to be not to be frustrated, irritated or the negative factor in relationships.
- I have increased strength to control my tongue so that my words are always seasoned with grace and blessing for the listener.
